Enter the stunning Covington floorplan through the charming front porch that has an optional wrap-around feature or through the two-car side load garage. What makes this garage special is its large storage area and customizable drop zone by the door. Or if you need more space add the optional third-car garage. Once inside the home, the great room, breakfast nook, and kitchen all flow together. The kitchen is only separated from the rest of the home by a large island. The kitchen also features a butler's pantry and a large food pantry. This whole open area is central in the home and can all be made to your liking by adding optional built-in cabinets in the great room, extending the breakfast area, upgrading to an even larger gourmet island, or adding a built-in beverage center. The first floor also offers a guest bedroom with a full bathroom making it the perfect setup for any friends or family who come to visit. A powder room is also on the first floor near the study and dining room. Create the perfect office by adding optional glass doors to the study to make ...
